

Bradford Cathedral Shield. This is the symbol of the Cathedral: it is our shield, like a badge or a logo. The things on the shield tell you that: this is the Cathedral (the bishop's hat, called a mitre); it is known as the Church of Saint Peter (the crossed keys are Saint Peter's symbol); and that we are in Bradford (the white wool sack).