

Bradford Cathedral Pulpit. The pulpit is a raised platform where a member of the clergy (priests) may stand to preach his or her sermon. A sermon is a talk given to the worshippers during a service, usually based on a passage from the Bible. The pulpit is raised to make sure that everyone can see the person who is preaching.