NOTICES

JOIN US & GET INVOLVED If you would like to explore becoming more involved in our community then please complete a welcome card that are available at the back of the Cathedral. We are looking for people to serve in several ministries across our community. There will be a welcome lunch for any new people on Sunday 5th October after our 10.30am service. Find out more from a member of the clergy or a steward.

WHAT'S ON BOOKLET You can pick this up from the Cathedral and around the city, or view it online at <https://www.bradfordcathedral.org.uk/featured-events>

SERVICES AND MUSIC LIST You can now view the Sep - Dec 2025 list at <https://bradfordcathedral.org.uk/music>

COMMUNITY COMMITTEE The Community Committee is a valuable link between our Clergy and Chapter and the congregation. Community Committee members wear blue lanyards to make them more identifiable to the congregation. Please feel free to chat to them and ask any questions you may have.

REVD HENRIETTE HOWARTH will be joining us at the start of October on an interim, part-time basis for a period of 6 months as Minor Canon for Congregational Life. There will be a licensing service for her during Choral Evensong on Tuesday 23rd September, 5:30pm. All are welcome.

EVELINE HUDSON sadly died on 1st September. Her funeral will be held at Bradford Cathedral on Monday 29th September at 1pm followed by a service at Rawdon Crematorium at 2.30pm.

FORTHCOMING SERVICES & EVENTS

WEAVING STORIES You are invited to come and weave on our loom! Weaving Stories is an exciting art and heritage project as part of our contribution to the UK City of Culture, with funding from the National Lottery Heritage Fund. Find out more at <https://bradfordcathedral.org.uk/2025/05/12/places-of-worship-in-yorkshire-hit-the-national-lottery-jackpot/>

JESUS: GURU, AVATAR, GOD? is an exhibition of two works from the Methodist Modern Art Collection; The Crucifixion by Francis N Souza, and Dalit Madonna by Jyoti Sahi. The pieces are selected to reflect on the person of Jesus as depicted from other faith perspectives. The exhibition will run between 5th September – 12th October as part of the 'Everything is Connected' Art Trail.

THE DIFFERENCE COURSE In a world often marked by division and misunderstanding, this course offers a hopeful path forward; to build bridges, foster forgiveness, and nurture flourishing communities. Over five engaging sessions, you'll explore how to navigate disagreement with grace and courage, equipping yourself with practical tools to engage meaningfully across divides. The course runs for 5 consecutive Tuesdays from 23rd September at 7.30pm in the de Lacy Centre. Speak to Canon Ned if you're interested in joining.

ORGAN RECITALS The free Wednesday@One organ recitals this week continue the theme of 'Global Connections'. Our organist this week will be Joshua Simões, HM Chapel Royal, Hampton Court Palace. The recitals are preceded with a buffet lunch at 12:30pm (£5). See <https://bradfordcathedral.org.uk/organ-recitals> for the full line-up.

RE:IMAGINE GLOBAL PEACE on Friday 26th September, 7.30pm. Join David Porter who played a pivotal role in Northern Ireland's Civic Forum and Community Relations Council and Kersten England, Chair of the Bradford City of Culture Board, in conversation over food as we explore diplomacy in a fragmented world. How can we reimagine global peace amidst rising polarisation? Together, we'll uncover bold and creative ways to build trust and connection, locally and globally, for a more peaceful, shared future.

TRIBUTE TO MAX RICHTER BY MYSTERY ENSEMBLE Saturday 27th September. The programme of the evening includes the famous Antonio Vivaldi cycle "The Four Seasons" in the author's interpretation of the cult contemporary composer Max Richter performed by the extraordinary Mystery Ensemble in an intimate & relaxing atmosphere. Book today at <https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/tribute-to-max-richter-by-mystery-ensemble-tickets-1335392186979?aff=erelexpmlt>

IN CONVERSATION: F N SOUZA IN FOCUS Friday 3rd October. Join us for a special 'In Conversation' talk, as part of our 'Global Connections' series of events. Professor Ann Sumner discusses the life and work of the Goan-born artist, Francis Newton Souza, with Dr Alice Correia, an independent curator, scholar and art historian whose research examines F N Souza's interest in Christian imagery particularly looking at his Crucifixion pictures.

R&B CLASSICS IN BRADFORD CATHEDRAL! Friday 3rd October. Get ready to experience the golden era of R&B reimaged by a live orchestra, surrounded by soaring arches and the glowing lights of the majestic Bradford Cathedral. This is not your average gig—it's an immersive, classical-meets-contemporary celebration of the best in 90s & 00s R&B. From slow jams to dancefloor anthems, expect to hear the soulful sounds of Alicia Keys, Usher, Brandy, Mary J. Blige, TLC, Ne-Yo, Destiny's Child and more—performed by an ensemble of talented musicians and vocalists like you've never heard them before.

ARTISTS IN CONVERSATION – DAVID JAMES, MO SCHOFIELD & MORE Monday 6th October. A friendly panel of local artists discuss their process and artistic responses to the Everything Is Connected exhibition of works from the Methodist Modern Art Collection. The evening will include a short slideshow of artists' work and their process, a panel discussion, and Q&A. Open to all. FREE, booking required at <https://itsoninbradford.co.uk/events/artists-in-conversation/>

MAURO BERTOLINO IN CONCERT Friday 10th October. Classical pianist, Mauro Bertolino, comes to Bradford Cathedral all the way from Turin. Be enthralled as Mauro takes us on musical journey. The bar will be open, and you can delight in simply giving yourself up to Mauro's undeniable skill. He's a gentle giant and will guide us through his own impressive renditions of the very best of the piano classics and more. Book at: <https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/mauro-bertolino-in-concert-tickets-1221219413139>
